

The Hijacking of the Jews

Gen 22:17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies; 22:18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

When one observes the three great religions of the western world, Judaism, Islam and Christianity, one cannot help but be impressed with the fulfillment of this great promise to Abraham. Abraham genes, his seed, and therefore his faith in one God indeed are as the stars in heaven and the sand upon the sea shore. His recognized seed, Arabs and Jews, also possess all of the land from the Euphrates through Egypt as promised in the same prophecy. His unrecognized seed the lost tribes of Israel make his seed uncountable among all of the nations. This is a very impressive coincidence for a migrant shepherd in a hostile land.

On the other hand when one looks at the history of death, destruction and mayhem wrought by these “religions” who both claim the same God and Ancestor, one wonders if the promise was a blessing or a curse! The unspeakable horrors and torture of the Islamic Conquests crusades, the Christian crusades and inquisitions, the Jewish wars and holocaust one just shakes his head and wonders.

Was not Abraham's God and God of Love? Should not the promise then have brought peace on earth and good will toward men?

This question has haunted me for all of my life because I know that God did desire that outcome. He is a God of love and desired to make a great nation of Israel to bring the Kingdom of God to earth under the Messiah. God desired to make them an example unto all the earth, a blessing and not a curse. God says as much:

*Deu 4:6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.:7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?:8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day

Something had to have gone terribly wrong for history to report the exact opposite! When one looks at the God of Israel and later the God of the Jews through the eyes of history one has to ask (forgive my _____) , what kind of God is he? Israel, the northern 10 tribes were led into captivity to be slaves and whores for their conquerors. The other two tribes soon followed a hundred years later. Although they managed to maintain an Identity in Israel this too was utterly crushed, raped and enslaved in AD 70 by the Romans. Finally, who can forget the Holocaust that killed 6 million Jews making lamps and soap out many?

If it were not for the fact that these events were foretold by God through the prophets unto Israel in the torah one might conclude that there is no God of Israel. The fact is that God did warn Israel and the Jews and exactly why these events would come upon them. What more, with a little logic, one can deduce that these events are all part of the plan of God hidden in the promise to Abraham.

The message of most of the prophets God sent unto Israel can be summarized in Moses song to the Israelites just before he Died. This prophetic song states:

Deu 32:16 They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger. 17 They sacrificed unto devils, not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not. 18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast forgotten God that formed thee. 19 And when the LORD saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

Moses foretells that Israel would provoke God with strange gods and sacrifice to devils the end of which would be that God would abhor them. Moses tells Joshua just before he gives this song to Israel “For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter days; because ye will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands” (Deu 31:29). What a sad comment to make after a lifetime leading the Israelites by the greatest miracles ever witnessed to the Promised Land.

David through the psalms gives us even more insight into this utter corruption of themselves that would bring evil upon them in the last days:

Psa 106:34 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:35 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.:36 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them. :37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, :38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.:39 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.:40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

David makes it clear that the Israelites would mingle genetically among the heathen and began to act as the enemy of God acted and worship their Idols and even sacrifice to their gods. Yes, they sacrificed even their own sons and daughters. The end of which as Moses had proclaimed God abhorred his own inheritance.

The significance of these prophecies is that Israel would become genetically mixed with Heathen or Nephilim blood. Consequently, acting and blurring the lines between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of light. In effect nullifying and making the promise of God to Abraham impossible. Not to mention also putting the seed of the Messiah in grave danger! This of course God could accept.

These prophecies seem to have come into their own around 8th Century BC. The Israel had split into the 10 Northern Tribes, called the house of Israel and two Southern Tribes, called the house of Judah. Directly due to the mingling, the Northern Tribes did not want to follow the Law of God particularly with respect to government and worship. Even at this late date God sent messages through the prophets Elijah, Elisha and Amos. Finally sending Hosea with the proclamation:

*Hos 4:5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother. :6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.:7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

Particularly painful in this passage is the destruction of mothers and children which became all too real as Salshamar King of Assyria raped, mutilated and took northern Israel captive in AD 721, breaking up homes and family. These became the 10 lost tribes of Israel.

???legends of Isreal tell us that the Northen tribes fled all over the world When the Assyrian Empire was Conquered by Babylon.????

Unfortunately the house of Judah was not far behind. Their mingling though was in one aspect different. The House of Judah had maintained a core group, faithful to God. Yet they were in grave danger of being assimilated by a Group who called themselves from the house of Judah but were not. They were actually descendents of Esau who mingled with the house of Judah.

The Bible is very clear on the gravity of this threat to the inheritance of the promise to Abraham. God says that even before Rebekah's infants were born that God hated Esau and loved Jacob. Yes, even before they had sin God knew that the soul of Esau and Jacob. He knew that Esau would reject his birth right (Gen 25 & 26) and mingle with the Nephilim and Ismaelites.

Gen 36:2-3 "*Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite; And Bashemath Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebajoth. He then took all his wives and children and dwelt in Edom."

A true blood feud ensues over possession for the promise and blessing. Esau will stop at nothing to reclaim the inheritance and blessing.

They became known as the Edomites for Edom was given to Esau. Chief among their tribes were the Amalekites who became the object of God's wrath for their warring against Moses and Joshua and adoption of strange Gods and practices. Saul lost his anointing and position as King because he did not obey the Lord and utterly destroy them from the face of earth. (1Sa 28:15-17).

Finally, in Nebuchadnezzar reign they became known as the Idumean's and given control of Judea. At this point God identifies them as "Evil Figs" (Jer 24) which are the genetics of the " Jews who say they are Jews but are not"(Rev 2:9 and 3:9). I will refer to them a Esau Jews

The Esau Jews are first encountered in the Jeremiah prophecy of Good Figs and Evil Figs. This very important prophecy in Jeremiah 24:1-10 comes after Nebuchadnezzar carries off the House of Judah into exile. Remarkably Jeremiah tells us that God did this for the Good of the Good Figs!

*Jer 24:3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

Jer 24:4 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

*Jer 24:5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

Imagine, God sent Nebuchadnezzar to conquer Judah and take the Good seed captive in order to protect them from (I assume) the influence of evil figs. God promises to ‘acknowledge’ or protect them in captivity and set his eyes upon them for good (v6). He also promises to bring them back into the land and Never, I repeat NEVER pull them up and to teach them how to have a heart to KNOW GOD. He will then be their God because they will return to him having a whole heart for God.

Jer 24:6 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

Jer 24:7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

It is important to note that this group of Jews, the good Figs, as a whole or governing body cannot be the ones who occupied Palestine in the time of Christ or before because these were “plucked up” in AD 70 by Titus. God will bring back a remnant of Good Figs as will see in Daniel's Abomination of Desolation prophecy. However their Destiny is still to be fulfilled.

Jeremiah tells us that the Governing Jews of Palestine during Jesus' time and prior are the second set of figs, the evil figs.:

Jer 24:8 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

Jer 24:9 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

Jer 24:10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

These are the Jews of the wrath of God who became a "reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse" and the ones who were driven "into all the kingdoms of the earth" by Titus in AD 70. These Jews are the ones who history most records.

While the Good figs were being looked after in Babylon the significance of Jeremiah's vision is confirmed if you read carefully Daniel 9:24-27, the famous Abomination of Desolation prophecy referred to by Jesus. (Matt 24:15). Daniel says having understood the book of Jeremiah and realizing that the Jews were under a curse because they had not understood the truth he undertook to pray that “thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers” (Dan 9:2,13,16)

Daniel’s supplication for the Holy Land and its people is answered by none other than Gabriel himself who significantly begins with the words:

“Dan 9:24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.”

Gabriel clearly tells Daniel that seventy sevens, 490 years will determine the fate of the curse upon the Holy Land and its people. One way or the other the 490 years were going to determine the outcome of the curse as follows:

- 1: Finish the transgression- that of the mingling and rebellion against the Law and God himself
- 2: Make an end of need for sin offering – the bloody sacrifice of animals
- 3: To make a way to reconcile the sin of all humanity.
- 4: To bring a way a man could live righteously forever.

5: To complete the visions and prophecy of the prophets.

6: Most importantly to empower God most Holy one, mashach qodesh (anoint the Most Holy)

The 490 year probation period decreed or determined upon “thy people and the holy city” could go two ways. If “thy people” finished the transgression through repentance and returned to truth and righteousness of the Lord then there would be an end to sin offering, reconciliation of humanity through a way of righteousness as the Messiah becomes anointed the most Holy one, King of Israel. This would of course be the fulfillment of the visions a prophecy.

The all mighty God who is outside of time and space knew that this just wasn’t going to happen. Daniels people were simply too mixed and the Esau Jews, the Evil Figs were in control. God therefore prophecies to Daniel and warns the true Jews what is going to happen.

First he tells them that during this period until the “messiah the prince” that there will be a return and rebuild of Jerusalem walls and temple, “in troubled times”. This signals that the “good figs” and the “Evil figs” would be battling it out in the Promised Land until the messiah appeared not as a king but a prince looking to be anointed.

Dan 9:25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

Then Gabriel tells anyone who has the ears to hear what will happen. The Messiah will be cut down for no fault of his own. This abomination will be the “overspreading of abominations” and cause the utter destruction and desolation of the temple, the city and its people.

*Dan 9:26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

*Dan 9:27 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

I am not going to get into the astonishing specific timing of all of this. I will simply say that from all that we can know of history Jesus Christ probably enter Jerusalem as prophesied in Zechariah 9:9ⁱ in April AD 32, exactly 483 prophetic years (360 days = 476 Julian years) from when the decree to build Jerusalem in BC 445. This is well within the window of opportunity for this Prophecy

The Window of opportunity for the coming of the Messiah was 490 weeks of years (however you define them) from whenever the decree to rebuild Jerusalem went out. That window is from BC 65 to AD 38. No matter how you cut it that window is long gone today. Jesus was therefore either the Messiah or Daniel a false prophet.

This fact, along with the obvious reality that Jesus was cut off in the middle of the prophetic week, and that afterwards Judea was horrible leveled and made desolate and the people destroyed must make any true seeker of reality or truth stand up and listen whether he be Jew or Gentile!

Any seeker of reality would realize that Gabriel did not bring Good news to Daniel. The prophecy clearly indicates the coming of the Messiah in the trial period and that the Evil Figs would triumph, killing the Messiah and the curse become permanent! Well, at least until AD 1948.

The Evil and Good Figs, Zac 9:9 and the Daniel 9 are not the only prophecies of the coming of the Messiah and the treachery of the Esau Jews. Less obvious and specific are the prophecies of Psalms 22, Jeremiah 31 and the powerful Isaiah 34 prophecies which I will get into shortly. Psalms 22 literally foretells the words of the Messiah on the Cross surrounded by the “bulls of Bashan”(Esau Jews). Jeremiah foretells of the New Covenant to come and Isaiah the final end of the Esau Jews, the Idumeans. Even the real Jews in Persia, the wise men of Persia, commonly known as the three wise men were looking for and knew of the prophecy of the Messianic Star in the heavens.

So how did the Jews in Judea at the beginning of the Common Era (and even today) not know their Messiah, allow him to be “cut off” and thus seal the curse upon them! The answer is simple:

The Esau Jews had hijacked Judaism and Judea.

They were the ones who interrupted the Law, the prophecies and were in charge of religion and government. They had usurped the birthright of Jacob and led themselves and true Jews into their darkest hour.

At this point it is important to talk about the Psychology of the Esau Jew. He may not even know he has the soul of Esau. His zeal to regain the birthright and the Promised Land borders on insanity and reflected in his zeal for the Law and Zion even above the true righteousness, mercy and love of God. He will corrupt the law to attain or maintain the power and riches of the blessing and above all he prides himself in being “the seed of Abraham” above the rest of humanity. All of this blinds him to the true nature of the Law, the prophecies and hearing God.

Historically, Judea came under the Power of the Idumeans about AD 100. The actual land called Idumea had been conquered by the Maccabaeus and assimilated into Judaism. (Circa BC 176) Then after the Roman conquest Antipate, in bed with the Romans began a dynasty over Judea and Israel. This became known as Palestine.

Eventually, in BC 37 the Dynasty fell to Herod the Great. Herod the Great by all accounts was a great choice for the King of Judea by the Nephilim rulers of Rome. He was Jewish enough to corrupt the Jewish traditions and kill Jewish royalty and priests and pagan enough to do it without conscience and scruples. He is credited with build the Great City of _____ and restoring the temple. Yet, at the same time he killed _____ the Jewish Lawful royalty, established and unlawful priest hood. He even murdered his own Jewish wife and children!

Some historians believe him to have gone mad. I think it was by design for it cannot be an accident that this very man was waiting at the exact prophetic time in history and the exact prophetic place to issue out an edict to kill the Christ when he was born. Matthew records this event after the wise men of Persia had informed Herod the Great of the birth of the Messiah:

Mat 2:16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wrath, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he ad diligently enquired of the wise men.:

Think about it! Herod the “Jewish King”, who ostensibly said when informed about the prophecy “when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also” (Mat 2:8), actually decreed the murder of hundreds of children to kill the Messiah, the prophesied savior of the Jews! Something is definitely not right in Judea at the time of Christ!

The true Jews and of course the Messiah well knew the reality of Judea. Both John the Baptist and Jesus called the religious elite, serpents and vipers and white washed tombs. They were not fooled by the religious mumbo jumbo and trappings. However, it was Jesus who revealed that it was more than hypocrisy and misguided religion.

John 8:20-45 of the new testament finds Jesus in conflict with the elite of the priesthood in the very treasury of the temple. He proclaims that they will seek him and not find him, “... ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins ...” (v21). This is the same man who said ‘seek and ye shall find knock and it shall be opened unto you’. Yet he tells them they have no chance that they shall die in their sins. He further proclaims:

Joh 8:23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

This by itself is not earthshaking but soon Jesus proclaims to the Good Figs that were in the crowd that they “shall know the truth and the truth will set them free” (Jn 6:32). The evil figs then reveal themselves with their reply:

Joh 8:33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

Do you see it! There is only one Abraham seed that never went into bondage! Esau’s Seed! Jacob’s seed or Israel was slaves to the Egyptians and the Babylonians. These were Esau Jews!

Jesus then directs the conversation to the Esau Jews. He acknowledges that they are Abrahams seed but they are doing the works and deeds of their father, that’s why they wish to kill him. Knowing what he is referring too, these Esau Jews get downright nasty inferring that Jesus is a bastard.

Jesus simply shakes his head and simply says “Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.”. Esau Jews simply cannot understand the word or the true nature and way of God. Jesus then gets directly to the point:

Joh 8:44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

Jesus was not speaking figuratively. Remember Gen 36:2-3” Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan...”? Their genes were from the Nephilim tribes that God order destroyed completely. ???,??? and Bashan. These are the people who had Hijacked Judaism with their lies and murder. In prophecy these were known as the “Bulls of Bashan”.

It is a wonder that these sons of the devil did not arrest Jesus then and there. Yet, as Mathew points out “...and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come. “(v20) Eventually, however, his hour would come. These Esau Jews secretly, under early morning darkness have him illegally arrested, tried and crucified. These are not the Jews who welcome him into Jerusalem crying Hosanna Hosanna () but the Esau Jews, the Evil Figs, the Hijacker of Judaism who feared to do such an evil deed in plain daylight in sight of the good figs.

Indeed, Jesus’ hour had come as prophesied by David. Psalms 22:1-18. The psalm cannot be read with recognizing the crucifixion. Such statements as “they pierced my hands and my feet(v16)” and “They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. (v18)” and “..they shake the head, saying,: He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him (v7 &v8)”. These statements cannot be attributed to David or any other prophet.

In the ninth hour Mathew records Jesus’ cry of agony “, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?(Matt 27:46). These are the exact words recorded in Psalms 22:1. This remarkable prophecy goes even further to explain that Jesus was being crucified by the “Strong Bulls of Bashan”;

Psa22:12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round. :13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint:

Who are these strong bulls of Bashan? The Torah tells us that Bashan was the stronghold of the Rephaim ‘Rapha’ translated ‘giants’. Bashan was the capital or the nephilim kingdom who’s King was Og.

Deu 3:13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.(also see v 3:5)

Prophecy, History and the Bible reveal the reality of life. Jesus was the prophesied Messiah, coming at the right time in history. Israel failed the trial period as foretold by Daniel because Judaism was hijacked by Jews who claim to be Jews but are not. Consequently, the Messiah was killed and the fate of the Jews and Jerusalem sealed.

Shortly after the crucifixion, in AD 70 , the army promised in Daniel made Jerusalem and Judea a waste land. Reports from Josephus the famous Jewish historian tell of a group of extreme Idumean zealots he call “sicarii” who led the violent ill fated rebellion against Rome. Once again, the Esau Jews zealous for their ill gotten birthright failed to understand prophecy and the plan of God. This time they lost the holy land and one million Jews lost their lives and over one hundred thousand became slaves.

Do not believe that that is the end of the story or prophecy. God would not let these Bulls of Bashan be Victorious! God would never abandon his people, “the Good Figs the very Good Figs.”. As Jeremiah 31:37 proclaims God would never ‘cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.” God would make a way to defeat them and distinguish or pull out the Good Figs from the Evil Figs. That way is Jesus the Messiah.

Don’t just reject that statement. Think of the promise to Abraham that “his seed would be as the stars in heaven and the sand on the sea shore and all nations through his seed should be blessed”. Listen to this prophecy of Jeremiah:

Jer 31:31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah :32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD: Jer 31:33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

This is the word of God. The house of Israel and the house of Judah will have a new covenant. Notice that God is speaking to the House of Israel and Judah and not a nation or tribe or even race. A house refers to a genetic offspring. In this case the House of Israel is the genetics that God drove into “all the nations of the world”. Abrahams seed has become as the stars in heaven but the question is how is God going to unite them into one nation a Kingdom of God.

This new covenant with the House of Israel is one where the Law will be written in their hearts, a part of the inward being. In verse 34 God proclaim that it will no longer be a matter of teaching the law but whether they “know me” (the Lord God). Verse 34 goes on say they will “know me” saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.” So the question is how are we going to identify this New Covenant?

Jesus said:

Matthew 26:28 For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

It cannot be clearer than this! Jesus is the new covenant and by his blood is the forgiveness of iniquity and sin is remembered no more. One cannot help but see the fulfillment of the Daniel 9 prophecy in this New Covenant.

“..And to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness...”. I simply cannot see how anyone, Jew or Gentile can ignore such clear direction and word from God.

Nonetheless, people Jew and Gentile do ignore the reality of life. Jesus new this and often declared sentiments such as:

Joh 10:26 *But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.*27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

As I reported in the beginning of this book when Jesus was on trial he testified that one of his purposes on this earth was to testify of the truth, of reality and that those who were of truth hear his voice. ()

While we may not like to be compared to sheep when it comes to how to run and live life, we are. The powers and forces of this world are far too powerful and easily manipulate us via channels of communication, business, religion and politics. We must listen to our maker and author of reality. We must get to know God personally.

If we don't the Kosmoskratores, the world handlers will shape and form your very souls. The chaos, destruction, wars and injustice of the world today already reflects their expert army of puppets. Just as the Esau Jews lead Israel into destruction and exile the world Handlers will lead the world to its own destruction, into the very wrath of God.

This is what revelation is all about. The World Handlers and even the Esau Jews are not gone. Revelation reveals that the Church will have to deal with them, particularly the Smyrna Age and Philadelphia Age Church. Here Jesus identifies them as the Esau Jews who “say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.” (Rev 2:9 3:9)

At this point it is important to remember one of lessons of Chapter three, Mendel genetics. After AD 70 and certain in our modern age there is no race of “Esau Jew”. Slavery has way of quick distributing the genetic material into the entire Gene pool of humanity. In fact for that matter there is no Jewish race. At least, none that can prove their lineage back to the 12 tribes.

That is not to say that there are no “Esau Jews”. As part of the Nephilim, there are Esau Jews that have pop up in all the western nations and religions. Like Mendel smooths peas it is just the law of genetics. Nonetheless, there is a core of these self proclaimed Jews who have Nephilim blood that make up the “synagogue of Satan”. They have not only made a bad name for the Jews but lead the world astray itself.

There is a powerful prophecy in Isaiah that addresses this situation. Idumea no longer exists and must be a prophetic metaphor for the Esau Jews. This is what God has to say about the final fate of Idumea :

*Isa 34:4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.:5 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.:6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

Clearly this is a prophecy about the end times. Host of heaven being dissolved and heavens rolled together can only happen at the end of time. Yet here we find the “people of my curse” are being judged of God one last time.

We have been following the “people of my curse” through Jeremiahs Evil Figs, through Daniels Abomination of Desolation, through the crucifixion of the Messiah to AD 70 Holocaust and exile from the Holy Land. All we have to add to that is the Holocaust of World War II.

I am not saying at any level that Titus or Hitler was ever justified. They will rot in hell and were used of the devil. However, history shows that they were puppets of an insidious order of the antichrist. Their bloodthirsty desire to rule the Promised Land and create a New World Order to prevent God’s plan has led to the murder of six million Jews and countless wars. They will go to any lengths to be sure all is ready for the final Beast of revelation.

Their Hijacking of Jews has given this order of antichrist perfect cover and a scapegoat throughout the centuries for their evil deeds. The true Jew has suffered much in their hands. The true Jew had better open their eyes and ears before it is too late. The end time is coming soon.

Example of the Hijacking of the Jews:

I would now like to discuss an example of how Judaism has been hijacked. I am not saying that Uri Yosef is an Esau Jew or that his website is void of any validity. I am also not going to debate point and verse.

His website www.Messiahtruth.com is simply an example of Nephilim programming designed to focus people on the narrow, technical and physical world not on the real world beyond the physical. This can be summed up in one verse:

*2Co 3:6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

This type of programming has one major problem and several errors. The major problem is that it lacks faith. It is so focus on the birthright Law and the infallibility of the “Hebrew” interpretation (according to the Law) that they fail to see the forest from the trees. They fail to understand God in one fundamental aspect:

Heb 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

That is to say that God is not held to equations or even the Law. He is God. He says “I will have mercy on who will have Mercy” (exo 33:19) this is the core conflict between the Christian and the Jew. It is totally what is involved with “My sheep hear my voice” and “those of truth hear me”. Sadly to the Esau Jew this is sacrilege.

Both Christian and Jew believe in the total fulfillment of Scripture. However, the Christian does not hold God to the letter of the law but to the spirit of the law. This is living in reality for three major reasons.

1. The transitionary nature of language and the written word. The history that surrounds a word or phrase, the context and the meaning can change or be lost over time. The exact meaning and intent can therefore always be debated and used for one’s own agenda.
2. No one, not even a Jew, can totally fathom the awesome mystery plan of God or the Ways of God. Therefore parts of prophecy could be fulfilled at different times, all at once or ever repeat fulfillment or combination of all theses :

Isa 55:8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

Isa 55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

3. The nature of history and time: God designed time to be a matter of faith. Most often one cannot prove what he was doing two days ago or even remember what he was doing last year on this day. It is also no secret that history favors the one who writes it (true or not) and that there is a vast amount of pre-recorded history. Even time itself according to physics might expand or contract depending on speed, time and expansion of the universe. God's word and prophecy may be exactly true we simply don't have enough or the wrong evidence to prove it.

The bottom line is this: For the believer in God you have to have faith in something. Either you will have faith in the Letter of the Law or faith in God. If you cannot tell the difference then you have big problem. The Esau Jew will say "How can you keep from being deceived if you don't use, understand every article and tilde of the Law and obey every time? This is how you show your faith in God.

The Christian sees prophecy and God's word through the spirit of the word of God to affirm the "law written in his heart" (Please remember the New Covenant) He use the blurry eyes of history to also confirm the law written in his heart.

This is how the Christian keeps from going into error. He realizes there is a Spirit of the Law that shouts from both the Old and New Testament. If he is of the right seed he knows this Spirit through the Holy Spirit and will not be led astray. He hears God's voice.

He realizes the impossibility of obeying the law every time and the effect of changing times.[For example Jews today do not sacrifice bulls and rams in accordance with the law.] However, he knows the spirit of the Law will guide him right and it does. Right to Jesus the Christ.

The specific example:

Uri Yosef declares that Jesus the Christ was not the Messiah but a false Messiah. He declares of the Daniel Prophecy:

TRUE MESSIAH - PROPERLY ANOINTED;

FALSE MESSIAH - SMEARED WITH OINTMENT

You can find his analysis and arguments at http://www.messiahtruth.com/anointed.html#_ftnref1.

Uri's arguments are reflected by most Jews I have talked to on this subject. The Jews often become very legalistic on Dan 9:24-27. First they will point out that the word kjv "Messiah" is really "anointed" and Jesus was never anointed

King or High priest. Second they argue over whether it should be translated “the anointed” or “an anointed”

Any discussion on anointed ruler of Dan 9:25 & 26 as the messiah or not must include a discussion of the requirements set forth in the header verse Dan 9:24. There is no use even discussing to point if Daniel was a false prophet.

The Chart below analyses a strict interpretation of the requirements to be completed in 490 years in light of the Jewish assumption, Jesus was not the messiah and the Christian assumption, Jesus was the messiah.

Requirement Fulfilled

Requirement	Jesus Not Messiah	Jesus is Messiah
to finish the transgression	No	Yes – The crucifixion sealed the fate of “thy people” the Jews to make an end of sins,	No	Yes – Jesus was the ultimate and last sacrifice. No need for more blood.
to make reconciliation for iniquity	No	Yes - through Jesus we are reconciled to God. Each and every person can have a relationship with God through Jesus.
to bring in everlasting righteousness,	NO	Yes – Our sins are justified through Jesus unto eternal salvation.
to seal up the vision and prophecy	Yes- Persia, Greece, Rome, Maccabeus	Yes - Persia, Greece, Rome, Jesus Christ, Titus to anoint the most Holy.	Yes – 2 nd temple built, cleansing	No

Clearly the Jewish position would make Daniel a false prophet. 2 out of 6 just does not cut it for a prophet of God.

Even the Christian position would disqualify Daniel on the last requirement. It is important then that we look deeper into what Gabriel meant by קדשים קדש משיח mashach, kodesh kodashim, "anoint the Holy of holies. (" mashach, to anoint, from which comes משיח mashiach, the Messiah, the anointed one)

When the Holy of Holies was first defined by Moses it is apparent that it meant "Holy Place of Holy things" for here was stored the Ark of the Covenant, the rod of Aaron, the Ephod and the tablets of the Law. It became known as the Holy of Holies over time.

Holy of Holies in ancient times meant "Holy Place of Holy sacrifices" because this was its function. It was the Place of the Mercy seat and receiving of the blood of the sacrifices.

I believe the Mishna reflect the ancient meaning and God's mind on this:

Kodashim or Qadhoshim (Hebrew קדשים, Holy Things) is the fifth Order in the Mishna (also the Tosefta and Talmud). Of the six Orders of the Mishna, it is the third longest. Kodoshim deals largely with the religious service within the Temple in Jerusalem, the Korbanot ("sacrificial offerings"), and other subjects considered or related to these "Holy Things".

The Key here is the sacrificial offerings and the function of the Holy of Holies.

Gabriel then was probably telling Daniel “to anoint the Most holy of holy sacrifices.” [Sacrifices were often anointed] Jesus as the Messiah would then fulfill this requirement perfectly. We now have 6 out of 6 requirements fulfilled by Jesus as the Messiah.

With this in mind, anointed ruler should be translated as a noun “the anointed ruler” in Dan 9:25 & 26 and even the Messiah is acceptable translation (remember Messiah means ‘anointed one’)

Yosef’s next point is, was Jesus anointed? This is a valid point. Jesus was not anointed in the legal manner. The Idumean Herod Dynasty and the false priesthood just were not going to do that! I think it unreasonable to expect them too.

Jesus was anointed, as Yosef points out, as a sacrifice for his burial. If that is not good enough for you then Jesus was “anointed” by God by water at his baptism. It is also possible we just don’t know when Jesus was anointed. Maybe it was not reported.

This leads to my final point. If Jesus was not the anointed or an anointed, who was? Who came around 490 years later and fulfills this scripture. Who was cut off and brought the desolation upon the Holy City? For what “overspreading of abomination” was desolation determined? The Esau Jews are silent – they have no answer. They just cannot see that Jesus the Christ fulfills the spirit of this prophecy so they grab for letters and articles.

Why does Yosef ignore the 490 years in Dan 9:24 and the key phrase “anoint the Most Holy”? Does Yosef really believe that Jesus could have or even should have been anointed by Herod the Great or Herod the King and the false priesthood? I hope not because then he would be an Esau Jew:

Mar 7:13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

¹ Zec 9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass
